

Description

The Opticon OPH3001 is a new handheld terminal with an integrated barcode laser scanner. The Opticon OPH-3001 is equipped with a clear and easily readable graphic TFT LCD color display which enables the user to use the terminal in combination with advanced application programs.

Product Features

Other technical specifications of the OPH-3001 are 128 MB flash memory for intensive data collection applications and a curved scan head for comfortable scanning. The mini-USB connector offers flexible charging and communication possibilities.

Highlights include:

- Portable laser barcode scanner – 100 scans/second
- Memory - Nand flash: 128 MB flashROM: 4 MB Ram: 4 MB SRam
- Programmable - free Opticon SDK enables solution providers to create customized scanning solutions
- Compact size and weight – 55 mm W x 136 mm L x 23 mm D and 140 grams.
- Batch scanner - stores data for later transfer via IrDA through a charging cradle (sold separately)
- Offers graphical color LCD with adjustable backlight
- Withstands drop of 1.5 meters to concrete
- Features rugged IP54 rating – comprehensive sealing against dust and moisture
- Delivers elegant design with soft grip for user comfort

Enclosed items

- Rechargeable Battery: lithium-Ion 3.7V 1100mAh Article number : 12025
- Handstrap Article number : 10225
- USB cable Article number : 12300

Accessories

Sold separately.

- Cradle Article number : CLK-1

Features

Properties

Warranty: 2 years

Serie(s): OPH-3001

Including: Battery Wrist strap

Physical

Connection(s): USB mini

Technical details

Platform: Proprietary

IP rating: IP54

Scan engine: Laser (1D)

Communication: USB-VCP USB-MSD

Barcodes: 1D